

EDUCATION

BA Geography
SUNY Plattsburg University, 1978

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATIONS

Registered Professional Land Surveyor

- State of New York
- State of Connecticut

Certified Professional in Erosion & Sediment Control(CPESC) – International

Tom has over 32 years of experience in the land surveying and civil engineering field, much of which is specifically targeted at surveying applications and inspection services as they relate to civil engineering projects in both the public and private sectors. Tom has executed numerous projects in the metropolitan area related to surveying, construction project management and inspections of public and private projects for compliance with NYSDEC SPDES Permit requirements, and land development ordinances of local municipalities.

Recent assignments have included:

- Construction inspection for NYSDOT highway work permits for highway intersection improvements.
- Management of construction inspection of the Somers Intermediate School Waste Water Regulatory Upgrade Project for the New York City Department of Environmental Protection, Somers, N.Y.
- Management of construction survey control and mapping for the Town of Patterson Front Street Sanitary Sewer Collection and Treatment System, Patterson, N.Y.

Personal experience includes projects relating to the following:

- Boundary, Topographic Mapping & Title Surveys
- Construction Inspections for local private and municipal projects
- Erosion & Sediment Control Inspections and reporting for NYSDEC SPDES General Permit for Construction Activities

Experience with prior firms include:

- Topographic and base mapping for municipal public improvement projects
- Construction Inspection and testing of all public utility improvements for project subdivisions and private projects
- Perform review of project plans and details on behalf of municipal Planning Boards and Town Planners
- Provide roadway construction inspections on behalf of Town Highway Departments & assist with roadway dedication process
- Perform site inspections and assist Town Highway Departments with processing driveway permits
- Provide various surveying services including boundary surveys, title surveys, topographic & as-built surveys and construction stake out